Farmer Given a Hundred Dollars for Flagging a Train.

lars for Flagging a Train.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHEVILLE, N. C., May 4.—As a reward for his forethought and prompt action in flagging a passenger train which was in imminent danger of plunging into an obstruction that no doubt would have resulted in a bad wreck and probable loss of life, E. F. Buckner, a farmer, residing in the Alexander section of Buncombo county, yesterday received from the Southern Railway Company a cheek for $100, with a letter from the high officials of the company, requesting him to accept the money from them as an appreciation of his service.

One day in February last Mr. Buckner was walking along the Southern Railway tracks, when he saw a huge boulder rumble from a rock ledge shd fall on the railway tracks. The place was at a sharp curve in the track, and Mr. Buckner, realizing the great danger to approaching trains, hastened up the track in the direction from which the next train was expected to arrive. After going a short distance he met the oncoming train, running at a fast speed. As the engine bore down on him he waved an old bandana handkerchief as a danger signal, and succeeded in bringing the train to a standstill. An investigation convinced the trainment and passengers of their right had been danger and narrow secupe, it being the emphatic opinion that unless the train in time to avoid a terrible catastrophe.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SALISBURY, N. C., May 4.—The closing feature of the great Council of North Carolina Red Men, which has been in session in this city for the past two days, was a magnificent flaming torchlight parade tonight, which was participated in by hundreds of patriotic members. The display was one of the grandest over witnessed here, and the North State Red Men are in the height of their glory to-night.

A big barbeeue was given at noon today, under the management of the Salisbury tribe.

At the close of to-day's business session Raleigh was chosen as the place for holding the next State convention, in May, 1903. F. M. Blodges, of Greenville, was elected great sachem, and E. P. Strunck, of Wilmington, was chosen keeper of wampum of the order. Mr. A. Bunn, of Charlotte was chosen great prophet; the other officers were elected from various points of the State.

Verdict for Five Thousand.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch)
RALEIGH, N. C., May 4.—The jury returned a verdict for $5.00 damages against the Seaboard Air Line this evening in the case of Pegram vs. the Scaboard Air Line for the burning to death of John N. Wilson in the Hamlet cotton compress fre in 1902. The suit was for $3.500, and was on the ground that the fire started from sparks thrown by a wood-burning engine during the coal strike period, that wood-burners were used on the main line of the Scaboard.
